Sydney

No. 233.—Vol. 4.

SYDNEY, SATURDAY, JANUARY 20, 1838.

[PRICE 6s. PER QU.]

To the Public.

THE COPY-RIGHT of the Commercial Journal having passed into other hands, and from being purely Commercial, now published as a Newspaper, and General Advertiser, on Wednesdays and Saturdays, containing both Local and Foreign Intelligence, and combining information with amusement, without however, losing any portion of its Mercantile character, which is still maintained with the greatest care;—the Proprietor would therefore suggest, both from the extensive circulation of the Journal, and his rapidly increasing subscription list, the eligibility of ADVERTISING in the same, and parties sending their favors may rely upon their being punctually attended to.

Terms of Subscription for both Numbers,

Five Shillings per Quarter.

Advertising parties will be kind enough to send their favors before 3 o'clock upon the afternoons of Tuesday and Friday.

* * * Subscribers are respectfully requested to send their orders to the Office, No. 7, Colonnade, Bridge-street.

1st January, 1838.

NOTICE.

MR. GREGGON'S Office is removed from No. 42, Castlereagh-street, to No. 100, George-street, opposite the end of Bridge-street, immediately above Mr. Blackman's Auction Rooms, on the first floor, where he will attend daily from Ten o'clock A. M. till Four o'clock P. M., and where he requests all Communications on Business, and all Claims and Demands against him and Family, to be addressed to him benevolently.
Sydney, January 8, 1838.

ADVERTISEMENT.

IT is MR. GREGGON'S intention, at the suggestion and desire of some of his Friends, to prepare for the Press and publish, in a detached form, during the present month of January, a pamphlet on the present Financial State of the Colony, with reference to its Revenue and Expenditure, Crown Lands Sale System, and Monetary System—its Commerce, Agriculture, and resources generally. In order to regulate the number of Copies to be printed, and the expense of printing the same (which it is expected will be from 2s. 6d. to 5s. for each copy), Gentlemen requiring to have copies will be pleased to signify the number of Copies they will require to Mr. Evan's, Bookseller, Bridge-street, on or before Monday, the 22nd January instant, as Copies will be supplied to such Subscribers only; and any Copies remaining on hand, after the supply of Subscribers on the day of Publication, will be sent out of the Colony to Great Britain and elsewhere immediately thereafter.

N. B.—The communications of all intelligent Gentlemen, in elucidation of the objects of Mr. Gregg's intended Pamphlet, are respectfully invited.
Sydney, January 8, 1838.

CRICKET.

MATEURS of this manly game, are respectfully informed that when they feel an inclination to relax from the toils of the world, and enjoy this rational amusement, they can be supplied with balls, bats, and wickets, at the "Odd Fellows' Arms," Elizabeth-street.
GEORGE BUCKINGHAM.

* * * Glee Club, Monday nights—Beef-steak Club, Tuesday nights—Visitors of respectability are invited to attend.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned hereby begs to repeat his Notice of the last two years—that he will hold himself responsible for no debts unless contracted under his own written authority. He begs also that no payments be made on his account except, as hitherto, to Captain N. Brown or himself.
W. BLAND.
Pitt-street,
January 18, 1838.

NOTICE.

ALL PERSONS having claims on GEO. BUCKINGHAM, will please to present them as early as possible for liquidation, as delays are dangerous.
George Buckingham,
Odd Fellows Arms,
Corner of Park and Elizabeth-street.

NOTICE.

MRS. STAPLETON is authorised to receive Monies on my account, on producing a printed receipt bearing my signature.

SUMMER HATS.

Made entirely from Australian Lambs Wool, with broad brims, warranted sun and water-proof.
THE great durability and unalterable general appearance of these Hats, and the satisfaction they have given to numberless Gentlemen, who have worn a single hat for two years, added to which, they being only half the price of other Hats, proves them to be most economical and suitable Hats for this warm climate.—No person living in the country, who regards the preservation of his eyes and general comfort, ought to be without one of these cheap and valuable Australian Lambs' Wool Hats.
