the doors, wet or dry—for they are not permitted to enter the sacred precincts of the Court until his worship is enthroned—from ten o'clock, the established time of opening, until the Court is actually opened, which, as we have before stated, may be after twelve o'clock. To compel a person to leave his business at 10 o'clock, to prosecute his unruly servant, is but enough, when the lateness of the hour is taken into consideration, but how is the evil aggravated and increased when the greater part of the day is lost, owing to the negligence of the Magistrate; for if the master is worn out by being jostled about by the fellows called constables, or business perhaps calls upon him to return home he loses his servant, who is turned into Government, in consequence of the contempt!!! A precious doctrine truly; but such is the fact. That the convenience of the inhabitants of this town, would be best consulted by His Excellency ordering that the prisoner should open at the same time as the free Court, is without doubt, and we consider him imperatively called upon so to do.

QUEEN'S BIRTH DAY. Thursday was the anniversary of the birth day of our most gracious Sovereign Lady, Queen Victoria, being the first, since her ascension to the Throne of the British Empire. The day broke with unclouded splendour, and as the sun gilded the horizon it was aptly denominated the SUN OF VICTORIA. The Banks and Public Offices were closed, and many of the shops throughout the Town were shut up, and all classes of the community appeared determined to enjoy themselves and celebrate with becoming splendour the auspicious event.

On Thursday morning Mr. W. H. Tyrer found that during the night his fowl-house was most foully rifled of six geese and six turkeys, and as a dog of a fierce description guarded the feathered tribe and had not given the slightest note of approaching danger, Mr. Tyrer very naturally supposes that a person lately in his employ, but now discharged, who was well known to the dog, was the party who committed the robbery.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, the keeper of a shop for general wares in Market-street, while standing upon the stairs talking to her husband, observed a woman, having on a red shawl, enter the shop and leave it almost immediately. Suspecting something wrong, she went into the street to look for her, but could not see her; but upon going into an adjacent shop, she found her there standing. On raising the red shawl, a couple of pieces of bacon were seen hanging from her waist belt, one of which was known by Mrs. Fitzpatrick to have been stolen from her shop.—Committed.

On Tuesday, a carter in a state of inebriety ran his cart foul of a dray and capsized his own vehicle—a constable coming up and seeing how matters stood, found it necessary to cut the traces before he could get the horse out of the entanglement, which he sent to the pound, while he conducted the driver to the watch-house; upon the road the fellow indecently exposed his person. On Wednesday, when brought before the Police, he was very properly fined 5s. for being drunk, or three hours in the stocks, and £5 for the offence against decency, or a month in goal.

Major Barney is expecting by every arrival from England the apparatus necessary for commencing the Circular Wharf. This erection will be of immense importance to the Shipping interest and public in general, will increase the value of property in its vicinity, and open up new streets, which at the present time are much wanted.
