

National Library of Australia, Papers of Earl Ewers MS 9060

This document relates to the CD of scans that accompanies the 1884 leather bound photograph album in MS 9060, Series 3, Item 1, Box 3. The photographs in the album were scanned and the CD was supplied to the National Library of Australia by Earl Ewers. The following information provided by Robert Nixon, great-great-grandson of William Millington Nixon.

Thumbnails of photographs above correspond to the TIF file numbers below - Photograph in the top left corner is 'front-01.tif', photograph in top right corner is 'front-12.tif', photograph at bottom left corner is 'front-85.tif' and photograph at bottom right (last) is 'front-93.tif'.

Some information about the subjects in the photographs was told to Robert Nixon by Earl Ewers, 15 Aug 2015. Earl Ewers felt that all the photographs in the album are relatives but the identity of many is unknown.

Some of the subjects in the photographs have been identified by Robert Nixon from the unpublished manuscript Wise, ML, Not the sons of 'Saint' Nicklaus: a Nixon family history, Mae Wise, c1997. Others have been identified from photograph albums held by Roslyn Nixon, great-granddaughter of William M Nixon, viewed by Robert Nixon in 2019.

Many of the photographs have been reproduced in the book Geoff Nixon, man of the land: a history of Gunniguldrie and the Nixon family, 2019 by Robert Nixon, a copy of which can be found in the NLA collection [referred to here as 'Nixon 2019'] - BIB ID: 8131099.
