BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mary Cameron, poet and journalist, was born at Mary Vale, Woodhouselee, near Goulburn, NSW, on 16 August 1865. She was educated at Brucedale, near Wagga Wagga, and later at Wagga Wagga Public School. Between 1877 and 1895 she taught in a variety of schools in New South Wales. She became involved in the New Australia movement and on 31 October 1895 resigned from teaching and sailed to Paraguay on the Ruapehu. Cameron remained at the Cosme settlement in Paraguay until 1899. She married fellow colonist and Victorian shearer William Alexander Gilmore (1866-1945) in 1897 and their only child William Dysart Cameron Gilmore (1898-1945) was born at Villarica, near Cosme. Before returning to Australia in 1902, she taught English in Rio Gallegos in southern Patagonia and wrote for Buenos Aires papers.

Gilmore's verse first appeared in the Australian Worker in 1902, and from 1908-31 she edited the women's page of this newspaper. Her first published volume, Marri'd and other verses appeared in 1910. Other publications include The passionate heart (1918), Hound of the road (1922), The tilted cart (1925), The wild swan (1930), The rue tree (1931), Under the wilgas (1932), Battlefields (1939), and Fourteen men (1954).

In 1937, in recognition of her contribution to Australian literature, she was made a Dame of the British Empire - the first woman to receive this award for services to literature. Gilmore was a founder of the Lyceum Club, Sydney, a founder and vice-president in 1928 of the Fellowship of Australian Writers, an early member of the New South Wales Institute of Journalists and life member of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Dame Mary Gilmore died on 3 December 1962.

SERIES LIST

Series I MANUSCRIPTS AND TYPESCRIPTS OF POEMS (UNPUBLISHED AND UNDATED).

For the purposes of this inventory "unpublished" means any verse not included in the published works listed in Series III below. Arrangement is alphabetical by first line.

21 folders

Series II MANUSCRIPTS AND TYPESCRIPTS OF POEMS (UNPUBLISHED BUT DATED), 1883 - 1959.

This material has been arranged in order to allow:-

(1) a broad survey of Gilmore's verse. This is possible since the arrangement is basically chronological. However in some cases Gilmore has conjoined variously dated pieces with similar titles. Also variously dated poems often appear on the one sheet.

(2) location of a specific item. This is possible since the arrangement of poems under each year is alphabetical by the first letter of the first line.

61 folders

Series III MANUSCRIPTS AND TYPESCRIPTS OF POEMS (PUBLISHED)

Poems subsequently published in the eight books listed below have been separated and arranged alphabetically by first line in eight folders. Series III is by no means complete and it is likely that there are drafts in Series I and Series II which should be placed in Series III.

1. Battlefield
2. Fourteen men
3. Marri'd and other verses
4. The passionate heart
5. The rue tree
6. The tilted cart
7. Under the wilgas
8. The wild swan

10 folders

Series IV SHEET MUSIC

Eight pieces, including drafts and copies of "Australian Battle Cry", "Six poems by Dame Mary Gilmore set to music by John Arcot" and Six songs from the South (words by Mary Gilmore; music by G.H. Clutsam).
