PAPERS OF BISHOP BURGMANN

General

see also ms 3085 for additional papers relating to Burgmann and the Diocese

Report

E.H.B. had filed most of his papers systematically, and had established a working pattern which I consider very satisfactory and have tried to use as much as possible. The contents of all the files have been checked and changes have been made where there was any confusion. Bundles of unfiled papers were either put into the existing system or were put into new files based on the existing pattern.

Between the Personal Correspondence (under "Correspondents") and "Diocesan" or "Subject" files there is naturally some overlapping. Where this seemed important, I have put "See also:-" slips inside the "Correspondent" file, but this cross-referencing is by no means exhaustive.

I have worked on the principle of "keeping everything" rather than of selecting and destroying.

Filing order

Cabinets 1. and 2.

Personal Papers

BOXES 1-4A

A. Personal Correspondence

Arranged under two different headings -

- (a) Correspondents
- (b) Subjects.

- (a) In this group there is a separate folder for each correspondent. These are arranged alphabetically and within each folder the letters are in chronological order.

BOXES 5-13(b) In this group, the folders are arranged alphabetically according to Subject. In each folder letters are either in alphabetical or chronological order, whichever seemed more suitable. The folders have generally been left as found, and some include press cuttings, pamphlets etc.

At the end of these two groups is a small number of folders named Personal - Miscellaneous which contain, for example, Personal Documents (licences etc.), Papers on E.H.B. etc.

BOXES 14-17,25

B. Sermons and Addresses

These are arranged alphabetically according to subjects - most of them exactly as they were organized by E.H.B.

Sources of Material, outside the Papers

1. St. Mark's Memorial Library, Canberra.

Papers and photographs relating to St. Mark's Memorial Library have been arranged in folders under Subject and are to be kept at St. Mark's since they contain material which is in current use. Many of the letters, however, are personal ones to and from E.H.B. and these papers are, of course, essential to complete the picture. Access to them will be under conditions similar to those relating to National Library Archives.

2. E.H.B. was associated with the following publications which are in the National Library. Some are also in St. Mark's Library.

The Morpeth Review
 The Southern Churchman
 The Anglican Review
 The Young Anglican Review
 St. Mark's Review

E.H.B. also wrote leaders and articles for "The Anglican".

3. The papers etc. listed below are to be returned to the file by Mrs. Barbara Thorn, 3 Red Post Hill, Dulwich, London, S.E.21, who is working on a biography of E.H.B. Based on a check made by Dorothy Bennett (daughter) these items appear to have been returned to NLA.

- "(1) An incomplete bibliography of E.H.B.'s work and articles about him which I am compiling - on cards.
- (2) Press clippings from the Newcastle Morning Herald
- | | |
|-----------|--------------------------------|
| 30.7.32) | } on Russia and Communism |
| 19.3.34) | |
| 14.10.51) | |
| 22.10.32) | } on unemployment and the dole |
| 24.3.33) | |
- 1933? - aspects of education - a report of a WEA conference with summary of address by E.H.B.
- (3) Pamphlet by E.H.B. - modern world's challenge to Christianity ... a national broadcast: [5.11.42] [Syd.] Friendship with Russia League. 4p.
- (4) A.L.S. from Jack Bean to E.H.B., 17.8.45 - on comparative religion.
- (5) Photographic copy of chapter on Religion, by E.H.B. from Grattan, C. Hartley, ed. Australia. Berkeley, Univ. of California Press, 1947.
- (6) Diary, 1913 - Wyong.
- (7) Press clipping from People, April 23, 1952, pp.24-27. Ep. Burgmann - a fearless protagonist of unpopular causes."

Mrs. Thorn will also return transcriptions of articles and speeches etc. which she has been using. Originals of these will, of course, be with the collected papers.

4. In Diocesan Archives at Newcastle there is a file on the transfer of St. John's College from Armidale to Morpeth.
5. The A.B.C. Archives in Sydney probably have tapes of the broadcast talks and sermons by E.H.B., copies of many of which are with the papers. In addition the A.B.C. is preparing a programme on the life and work of E.H.B. which is to be broadcast early next year (1968). This will include a recording made many years ago by E.H.B. at the request of Kenneth Henderson. The recording is marked "To be played after his death". There is also in the archives a recording of an interview made by E.H.B. with Wal Eastman of Canberra on the jubilee of his ordination. The A.B.C. in Newcastle has made a recording of tributes to E.H.B. by his son, his brother and two of his students. This has not yet been broadcast. A copy is held by Mr. C.A. Burgmann, 19 Ocean View Parade, Charlestown, N.S.W.
6. Among some unfiled papers was a letter, dated December 18th, 1963 from the Research Assistant, Department of Political Science, A.N.U., indicating the existence of a folder of letters written to E.H.B. about his stand on the Referendum Campaign of 1950 concerning the Communist Party Dissolution Bill. It seems certain that this folder was returned to E.H.B. by the A.N.U. but so far it has not been found. Its contents would obviously be of considerable interest.

(The letter from A.N.U. with notes about attempts to trace the file is attached to a copy of this report with the papers at the National Library.)
